Guidance for trustees

Register of conflicts of interest

Below is an example of a register that may be maintained by trustees in order to identify and record conflicts of interest. Please note that this is just one of many examples, and any such register needs to be scheme specific. This is the conflicts of interest register referred to in the conflicts procedure adopted by the trustees on [date]. It should be available for inspection at each trustee's meeting, or on request by any director of one of the joint trustees. It was last updated on [date].
